Houston Humane Society May Happenings

News you need to know!

May 2-8, 2010 is National Pet Week!

The Houston Humane Society, along with the four other animal welfare organizations here in the Houston area, are joining forces to help our four legged friends find "furr-ever" homes.

As part of National Pet Week, the HHS will offer several adoption incentives: half price adoption fees on ALL cats, half price on ALL heartworm positive dogs; on dogs that weigh 50 pounds or more and half price fees for dogs who've been shelter residents for six months or more.

These adoption specials begin Thursday, May 6 and continue through Sunday, May 9, 2010.

Celebrate National Pet Week by opening your heart and adopting a loving dog or cat from the Houston Humane Society, located at 14700 Almeda!

The Houston Humane Society is pleased to help announce the Second Annual Juried Exhibition, "Second Chances"!

This event will be held in the month of July. Please note that the application deadline is May 15. Houston artist Jeff Law will be the Juror this year.

Prizes include cash awards as well as the opportunity to display your work at Archway Gallery for one month.

Worried that your child might be a little bored this summer?? There's not a chance of that happening if you enroll your little friend of animals in

COMPANION CAMP!!!

2010 Camp Dates

June 7-11

June 21-25

July 26-30

June 14-18

July 12-16

August 2-6

Companion Camp is a wonderful opportunity for children ages 7-13 to work hands-on with the animals cared for by the Houston Humane Society. They'll learn valuable life lessons concerning the welfare of animals and about responsible pet ownership. During a typical day, campers receive humane education, a workshop from a veterinarian or animal expert, games, crafts and participate in hands on animal activities.

Companion camp is a must for all kids and teens!

Cost is $250 per session which is from 9:30 am to 3 pm, M-F. It includes daily snack and drinks, t-shirt, crafts, and all kinds of fun activities. Lunch will not be provided, so we ask that your camper brings a sack lunch. Registration is underway now

A VERY COOL CALENDAR OF UPCOMING "THINGS TO DO"
THIS SUMMER, ALL BENEFITTING THE HOUSTON HUMANE SOCIETY

Now that the weather is a bit warmer, there are a lot of really cool and fun events planned for the HHS.

Love wine? Then you will not want to miss the upcoming Wine Tasting Fundraiser benefitting the Houston Humane Society, hosted by one of the coolest wine bars in Montrose.

The Absolve Wine Lounge, 920 Studement in the Shops at Memorial Heights just opened this past January and it's a terrific place. Cozy, intimate...everything a wine bar should be. Owner, Greg McCabe has a great place and he and his family are HUGE animal lovers. So, mark your calendars for this event slated for Tuesday, June 29th from 6 pm-8pm.

This fundraiser will give you a chance to sample incredible wines, delicious food, you can bid for great items in a silent auction and to help the wonderful animals at the Houston Humane Society.

Please check the HHS website throughout the month of May for ticket information.

And we're pleased to be working with the animal lovers at Casa Ole. This longtime Houston area Mexican restaurant chain will be hosting a very special tequila tasting and four course dinner benefitting the Houston Humane Society on Wednesday, June 9, 2010 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm at their restaurant located at 12350 Gulf Freeway near Fuqua.

Make plans to attend this fun, tasty and educational event. Casa Ole will have on hand Mike Lindell, a tequila expert who knows just about everything there is to know about the two different tequilas that'll be sampled that evening: Gran Centenario and 1800. These are both delicious 100% Agave tequilas; some of the best Mexico has to offer!

Tickets will go on sale soon.

Check out the Casa Ole website at www.casaole.com for more info.
