Huge Adoption Special Planned to Alleviate Over-Crowding

It's Raining Cats & Dogs at Houston Humane Society!

Houston, TX: The Houston Humane Society (HHS) announces the start of a huge adoption special in hopes of finding homes for the hundreds of animals in their care. It's Raining Cats and Dogs at the Houston Humane Society! From now until the end of April, an extra special adoption price of just $50 will be offered to help all dogs that have been at the shelter for 3 months or more, OR any dog that is heartworm positive, OR any dog that is over 50 pounds! And the special adoption fees aren't just for dogs, those interested in adopting cats will get a special 2 felines for 1 adoption fee of $50.

All adoptions at the Houston Humane Society include spay/neuter surgery, microchip, routine vaccinations, general health exam, rabies vaccine, de-worming, heartworm test in dogs over 6 months and feline leukemia test in cats, and an adoption kit.

About the HHS: The Houston Humane Society is a private, non-profit animal welfare organization dedicated to ending cruelty, abuse and the overpopulation of animals. The HHS does NOT receive any government funding or operating funds from national animal welfare organizations, and relies solely on donations, special events and program services. For the 6th consecutive year, the HHS has received a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator.
